

Diesel Technology Forum Report
Analysis of Data Provided by R.L. Polk & Company
Make/Model Registration Volume by Fuel
2000-2005

Vehicle Type	2000		2001		2002		2003		2004		2005		Cumulative (2000-2005)
	Diesel Registrations	% Choosing Diesel*	Diesel Registrations	% Choosing Diesel*	Diesel Registrations	% Choosing Diesel*	Diesel Registrations	% Choosing Diesel*	Diesel Registrations	% Choosing Diesel*	Diesel Registrations	% Choosing Diesel*	Diesel Registrations	% Choosing Diesel*	% Increase from 2000 to 2005
Medium-Duty Trucks Includes Chevrolet Silverado, Dodge Ram, Ford F-Series and GMC Sierra Trucks	278,136	54%	337,127	50%	331,891	52%	396,375	55%	433,787	59%	477,853	63%	2,255,169	56%	72%
Light-Duty Vehicles Includes Mercedes Benz E-320, Jeep Liberty and Volkswagon Golf, Jetta, New Beetle, Passat, and Touareg	22,543	9%	23,776	10%	30,184	14%	24,897	13%	33,541	11%	44,031	11%	178,972	11%	95%
Other Diesel Passenger Vehicles Includes the Diesel Hummer and Sprinter Passenger Vans	792	100%	696	100%	739	4%	1,025	3%	1,662	6%	21,893	29%	26,807	17%	2664%
TOTAL	301,471	40%	361,599	40%	362,814	42%	422,297	45%	468,990	44%	543,777	45%	2,460,948	43%	80%
Diesel's Percentage Share of the New U.S. Passenger Vehicle Market	2.25%		2.60%		2.71%		3.10%		3.37%		3.60%

* For vehicles offering a choice between gasoline- and diesel-powered engines, the "% Choosing Diesel" column shows the percentage of consumers who selected the diesel option

 Class 1, 2 & 3 vehicles